

RACIAL HEALING & RECONCILIATION

REGISTER TODAY!

THE BLUEPRINT FOR A BELOVED COMMUNITY

OCTOBER 27TH

9AM - 4PM | VIRTUAL

www.rhrconference.com

Featuring

Dr. Johnnetta Betsch Cole
First African-American Woman
President of Spelman College

Dr. Nathaniel Glover, Jr.
First African-American Male
Elected Sheriff of Florida

SPONSORED & HOSTED BY:

Racial Healing & Reconciliation Conference | Run of Show (9 am – 4 pm)
Theme - RHR Conference 2022: The Blueprint for a Beloved Community

Hosted by Mr. Charles Griggs

Partner Welcome

Dr. Kimberly Allen | Dr. Richard Danford | Rev. Allison DeFoor | Dr. Tameka Hobbs
Dr. Tammy L. Hodo | Dr. Kyle Reese | Mr. Dennis Stone, Esq.

What is a Beloved Community?

Understanding the Vision of Becoming a Beloved Community

THE BLUEPRINT: PART ONE

Fueled by Faith

Moderator: Dr. Kyle Reese

Experience the enlightening conversations that happen when Jewish, Catholic, Islamic, Episcopalian, and Baptist leaders --- each of different faiths, share what they believe the Beloved Community is and the action steps that must be taken to achieve it.

JAZZY BREAK

Grab a coffee or tea. Check your email. Enjoy some jazz.
We're back in 15 minutes.

THE BLUEPRINT: PART TWO

Absent of Poverty, Hunger & Hate

Moderator: Dr. Tammy L. Hodo

When Melvin White founded the Beloved Streets of America, his work became the catalyst that inspired a campus-wide movement for students and faculty at the Harvard School of Graduate Studies. Learn as he shares why streets across the country should be beloved and hear from David Harris, former Managing Director of the Charles Hamilton Houston Institute for Race & Justice at the Harvard Law School. Also, meet Darias Bowers, a leader in the Poor People's Campaign movement.

JAZZY LUNCH

Grab lunch. Check your email. Enjoy some more jazz. Take a walk.
We're back in 45 minutes.

THE BLUEPRINT: PART THREE

Involves Systems of Law & Education

Moderator: Dr. Kimberly Allen

As Counsel and Assistant Director of Client Training for Ogletree Deakins, Attorney Luther Wright's key responsibilities is to educate. Learn as he shares expertise on diversity, and civility in "Being a Bystander Doesn't Mean You Have to 'Stand By': Tips for Responding to Insensitivity Directed at Others."

THE BLUEPRINT: PART FOUR

Involves Systems of Healthcare

Moderator: Dr. Tammy L. Hodo

Experiences have a direct impact on our mental health and wellness. Join Dr. Eric Griggs, Community Medicine, Access Health - New Orleans, Dr. Tammy L. Hodo, Veteran, CEO/Founder, All Things Diverse; Dr. Richard Danford, Veteran and President of the Jacksonville Urban League; and Veterans Evan Seamone and Keith Green as they take health to heart.

Racial Healing & Reconciliation Conference | Run of Show (9 am – 4 pm)
Theme - RHR Conference 2022: The Blueprint for a Beloved Community

Involves Systems of Infrastructure & Municipal Reform

Moderator: Dr. Tameka Hobbs

Access to a vibrant transit system transportation is vital in the Beloved Community. Learn how the Jacksonville Transportation Authority has become a champion for innovative solutions, partnerships, walkable neighborhoods and complete streets, with Greer Johnson Gillis, Senior Vice-President – Chief Infrastructure & Development Officer for JTA.

JAZZY BREAK

It's our last one for the day before we're back in 15 minutes.

FIRST, BUT NOT LAST

WISDOM FROM LEADERS WHO MADE HISTORY AND CHANGED THE WORLD

Hosted by Keitha Nelson

Dr. Johnnetta Betsch Cole became the first African American woman President of Spelman College in 1987. Dr. Nathaniel Glover, Jr., in 1995, was the first African American elected Sheriff in Florida since the end of the Reconstruction Era.

In a first-ever, intimate, conversation with award-winning journalist Keitha Nelson from the historic American Beach, the pioneers share their thoughts on racism, lessons on life and career, and the charge we have to create a Beloved Community.

LET'S TALK

Where do we go from here?

Hosted by Winston Seabrooks

Join Winston Seabrooks is one to watch for the future. Join him and the RHR partners for takeaways and what's next.